STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice provide that the Community Supervision Officer may request from the sentencing court the removal or modification of special conditions of sentencing.

DISCUSSION: The sentencing court may impose special conditions at the time of a juvenile's sentencing, e.g., to obtain psychiatric treatment, to submit to substance abuse testing, suspension of driver's license, electronic monitoring, house arrest, no contact orders, etc. If a juvenile is adjusting well, removal of a special condition can provide positive reinforcement.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
